Interim Pastor Search Update

- The Interim Pastor Search Committee has been busy over the past several weeks. They developed a draft schedule covering interim pastors responsibilities on Sunday, Monday, and Wednesday.
- The committee reviewed several candidates and interviewed the top two candidates. The committee recommended Dr. Mike Cogdill as the finalist for further vetting by the board of deacons and the congregation.
- A church wide breakfast will be held on March 8th to allow the church membership to meet Dr. Cogdill. He will also fill the pulpit at the 11:00 service. There will be no 8:45 service on March 8.
- The following Sunday, March 15, the congregation will vote on the calling of Dr. Cogdill as interim pastor.
- A pulpit schedule has been developed for March.
 - March 1- Braxton Kubasko
 - March 8- Mike Cogdill- 11:00 service only. No 8:45 service on March 8
 - March 15- Ed Renfrow
 - March 22- Mike Queen
 - March 29- Dade Sherman

Transition Team Update

- Beginning the week of January 27, church members were encouraged to express interest in serving on the Transition Team. The Transition Team will work with Dr. Mike Queen to facilitate congregational input sessions and compile the results to create a church profile and a new pastor profile. These profiles/reports will be presented to the congregation upon completion.
- All members expressing interest in serving on the transition were recommended to and approved by the deacons. Members of the Transition Team are: Jo Paul, Suzanne Johnson, Hinton Armstrong, Susan Broadwell, Robert Walsh, Lauren Alford, Matt Gardner, and Lacey Barnes.
- The Transition Team will complete an orientation training with Dr. Queen within the next few weeks and finalize a schedule for the congregational input sessions.
